

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to express my interest in the Primary Teacher position at your school. I hold a Bachelor's degree in Bilingual Primary Education from the University of Alcalá de Henares (Spain), along with certifications in English teaching and Religious Education. Additionally, I have already obtained my Teaching Council Number through Route 1, which ensures my readiness to begin teaching in Ireland. I believe my diverse experience in international educational settings would allow me to make a valuable contribution to your school community.

Throughout my teaching placements in Spain and Finland, I have taught Social Studies, Natural Sciences, Spanish, English, and Religion in bilingual environments, working with students of various ages and backgrounds. These experiences have strengthened my adaptability, classroom management skills, and ability to implement active learning methodologies.

Beyond the classroom, I have worked as an invigilator for Cambridge examinations, ensuring a fair and supportive testing environment. I have also been a camp counsellor at an international summer camp, where I organized and led activities that fostered teamwork and creativity. Additionally, my role at a children's activity centre allowed me to design hands-on projects that encouraged both personal and creative growth.

My connection to Ireland is particularly relevant. Over the past five summers, I have spent one month each year living with Irish families, immersing myself in the culture and education system. This experience, combined with my Teaching Council registration, has provided me with a strong foundation to integrate smoothly into your school community.

My teaching philosophy is rooted in the belief that learning should be active, engaging, and meaningful. I strive to create an environment that inspires students to explore, question, and discover, following Learning by Doing principles. During my degree, I developed Project-Based Learning initiatives and published a study in an educational journal, exploring the use of literature as a tool to enhance learning.

I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss my application and how I can contribute to your school.

Feel free to contact me at +34 679177913 or at alvarodecastromartin02@gmail.com to arrange an interview.

Sincerely,

Álvaro De Castro
